

Do not change the Wisconsin Do Not Call Law. In the five years before the law was enacted, I did not once purchase anything a phone solicitor offered me. During that period, I received an average of five calls a night between 5:30 pm and 9:00 pm. Many were the compute type that would not release my line even after I hung up.

There are other media that marketing people can use to solicit our business